Féile an Fhómhair in association with Carlow Cathedral Organ Restoration Fund present Ronan McDonagh and Fuaimlaoi in concert in Carlow Cathedral of the Assumption.

Fuaimlaoi, a group of singers based at St. Teresa's Church, Clarendon St. Dublin, brings to life the compositions of Ronan McDonagh, liturgical composer, organist and multi-instrumentalist. An uplifting concert, it will present scripture texts, hymns, Irish prayers and poetry in a musical style that grows out of our native tradition. The group's cd Ancient Promise includes meditative instrumental airs, polyphonic choral pieces - both reflective and exuberant, and lyrical unison psalms and hymns with instrumental arrangements featuring organ, solo violin, String Quartet, uilleann pipes, flute and accordion. This event will seek to promote liturgical music that is rooted in our native language and tradition. A real treat featuring choir and traditional instrumentalists with magnificent organ accompaniment. Not to be missed. Eolas/Info: Cathedral Parish Centre. Teil: 059 9164087.
